Secretary's Report: Read and accepted by Dave Whitehead and John Deterling. MP

No Correspondence:

New members: Wade and Joyce Fitschen

Treasurers Report: Read by Matt Hughes and accepted by Eric Schaffer and Dave Whitehead. The new credit cards need activating.

Groomer Trails:

- Signing has been done by Bruce Bergsten and Dave Whitehead.
Stakes were also placed by Bellwood Pit Road
Sewer Pond Road has also been signed.
Discussion of hanger posts for gates at the Johnson Pit. Check with Mark Hughes.
A bill will be coming from Ernie's Welding for welding the wheels for posts.
- There is one GPS on order for a groomer.
- The groomers are basically ready to go
 - waiting on a grill for the Hawthorne groomer
 - drag tires need to go on the drags
 - Soucy – box needs welding
- Discussion of signage for private property – Eric Shaffer has a few signed that need to put up; a couple to go on Trail 24; 6 at 18th Street Pit; Priem's Property; 6 on trail from Homestead to Middle River Rd. Eric Shaffer will order about 14, along with posts and 10 stop signs.
- Map boards have been updated and filled.
- Members made it out to the Shack on Sunday and did some set up and cleaning inside. The notebook needs to go.

NTA:

- Meeting date was changed to December 8.
- Supplemental will only be reimbursed at 97%
- Maps should be at next meeting for dispersal.

Tri County Corridor:

- Still waiting payment.

AWSC:

- Bruce Bergsten has specifics on Badger State Games Torch Run, if anyone is interested.
- ACSA has several new safety posters available
- Discussion of stake holders and deer hunting
 - Burnett County will open after late deer hunt

Social:

- Christmas party has been cancelled and we will have a regular meeting on December 17 at Al Makela's garage. January 7 meeting will be at Twin Gables.

Unfinished Business:

- Blueberry Trail – this is a good time to work on the trail. We should get it marked. Probably take two groups to start at each end and work towards water hole. Bruce Brown and Zac Makela will check on the trail. Discussion of grooming this trail. At first use the club sled and possibly use a groomer.

New Business:

- Trail work: Mark Hughes and Lance Berger have been checking trails.
- Club stickers: Al Makela is basically out and wondering if he should order more. Motion by Eric Shaffer, seconded by Zac Makela to order more. MP

Next meeting is January 7, 2021.

Meeting adjourned at 7:47.

Respectfully submitted,
Donna Bergsten
Brule River Riders Secretary
