Groomer Trails:

- Trail report by Bruce Bergsten:
 - Clifford Walimaki graded Tri-County Corridor east
 - David Ashley graded the Tri-County Corridor west
 - Howard Rasmussen mowed the BRSF
 - Bruce Bergsten is about 1.3 done with mowing the BRSF
 - Discussion of grading the Wild Rivers Trail again
- The Brule River State Forest contract is ready
- Beaver problems – possibly need to dynamite the beaver dam on the Poplar River.
 - Trail 6 was plugged, but Al Makela will unplug
- Gold Course Trail – discussion of where to cross Highway #2. Bryce Bayliss stated that he will check with Adam DeMeyer about crossing to his property from Bayfield Rd. Discussion of permits that may be needed crossing the highway. Bruce Bergsten to meet with them and assist in filling out the paperwork. Discussion about club grooming their trail.
- Work day at Shack – Saturday, October 21 – Retrieve firewood from Iron River and take to Shack. Meet at Twin Gables at 8:00 AM. Al, Nicholas and Zachary Makela, Dave Whitehead, Don Miesbauer, Aeryk, Bryce and Connor Bayliss.

NTA

- Next meeting is November 7

AWSC:

- Bruce and Donna Bergsten are planning to attend the Fall Workshop. Al Makela asked if they could pick up something for about $50 and donate to the Silent Auction.

Tri County Corridor:

- Nothing to report

Social:

- Club Christmas Party. Motioned by Bryce Bergsten, seconded by Dave Whitehead to have the party at Twin Gables on December 14.

Unfinished Business:

- Fuel tank – Al Makela is still working on this. He was wondering about mounting a 10-12 gallon tank on the groomer, plus 10 gallon tank on the groomer. Would this work?
- Eric Shafer Memorial sign – Al Makela called Tiger Manufacturing. They are to call back and he has not heard back from them.
- Donna Bergsten is working on the Bingo request. It was not submitted in time to have Bingo Raffle during hunting season. Donna does have a few more questions to ask DeDe from the Gravel Pit.

New Business:

- No new business.

Meeting adjourned at 7:39 pm

Respectfully submitted,
Donna Bergsten
BRR Secretary
