Treasurers Report: Read with motion to accept report by Dave Whitehead, seconded by Zachary Makela. MP

Groomer Trails:

- All the gates should now be closed. There are signs to be picked up in Poplar, near Chad's and at Norwood Golf Course.
- Brushing – Tri-Cunty Corridor has been brushed by Dave and Cliff with Mark, Matt and Hunter picking up sticks.
- The tractor was moved to Chads, as the guys have been mowing over that way. After mowing over there, they will go to 235 and then to trail 27.
- The gates are all closed.
- TCC Bridge inspection was done. Mark Hughes gave recommendations to Al Makela, who will speak with Patrick about these.
Lance and Mark have the maps of the TCC that the State of WI owns and need to find the culverts.
- Need to get some landowner agreements for trail 6 – may be able to get some at Landowners' Dinner
- Sign order needs to be sent in.
- Discussed ways to spend money for all contracts.
- There is some beaver problems on Trail 6 – they have come back to the culvert. Al Makela will fix the issues and fill some holes on the trail.

NTA

- Most discussion was about the map. NTA is going to look in to electronic payments for map ads. There will be a strict date to be on the map.
- It was agreed to keep the map the way it is: a map every year

AWSC:

- AWSC minutes did get sent to Al Makela, but he has not reviewed them yet. Anyone who wants them, please contact Al.

Tri County Corridor:

- There was a meeting on Monday and Al Makela was not able to attend.
